

Restorative Justice Conference 2009

Friday Nov. 20: 7:00 PM Registration

Saturday Nov. 21: 8:00 AM Registration

Trinity-St. Paul's United Church (Bloor/Spadina)

Building a Restorative Community

Friday Evening Keynote

Rev. Dale Lang

Rev. Lang's 17 year old son Jason was killed on April 29,1999 while he was attending school. Since that time Rev. Lang has devoted much of his time travelling the country to talk about how he and his wife decided to take the path of Restorative Justice in dealing with this tragedy.

Please plan to join us for our Friday evening session featuring Rev. Lang as he shares with us his story of pain and forgiveness.

Saturday Keynote

Arthur Lochart

Arthur is a professor of justice studies at Humber College. Arthur introduced the first training of restorative justice to the members of Toronto school systems, police, and community agencies. He is the founder of The Gatehouse: a community based home assisting people victimized by child sexual abuse.

Saturday Breakout Sessions

- An Introduction to Restorative Justice
- Restorative Justice in the Organization
- * Restorative Justice in the Schools
- * Restorative Justice in the Family
- * Restorative Justice in the Judicial Context
- * Restorative Justice in the Church
- * Providing Sanctuary: Restorative Alternatives to Child Custody

Register today at: www.friendsofdismas.ca or call 905-294-8305
Conference Fees: Full Conference: $35/ Student: $20/ Friday Night Only $20